CHURCH MATTERS.

The First Congregational church of Marietta, O., was destroyed by fire

The Southern Railway has given a site of ground and $15,000 for a railroad Y. M. C. A. at Spencer, N. C.

Cumberland Presbyterian Sunday-schools have given $230 more for Mexican mission schools this year than last year.

The Central Presbyterian church, Atlanta, Ga., supports the missionary who converted Gen. Oku and Admiral Togo, of Japan.

American missionary societies gave last year $7,807,992; British societies, $7,625,086; American converts were 56,306; British converts, 26,824 in foreign lands.

The official organ of the Cumberland Presbyterians regrets the decrease of infant baptism. With 180,000 communicants add 1,600 ministers last year, there were 5,609 adult and only 1,580 infant baptisms.

It takes 14 pages of the Jewish Year Book to give the list of gifts and bequests to charities. The oldest Jewish Widows and Orphans' Home was founded in 1854 at New Orleans; New York, 1859; Cleveland, 1868, and San Francisco, 1871.

Rev. Dr. C H. Wheeler reports the cost of converts in foreign lands by the various churches vary as follows: Northern Baptists, $66; Southern Baptist, $123; Congregationalists, $126; Presbyterian, $204; Christian Alliance, $274; Methodists, $282; Episcopalians, $983

The biggest revival in Louisville's history opened last night with services in 16 districts. Simultaneously the crusade started in New Albany and Jeffersonville. The past week has been devoted to preliminary work and the preachers believe thousands of conversions will be secured in the two weeks that the meetings will continue.

The Children.

A baby's weight at five month's should be double its weight at birth

Tell your children white lies and they will soon hand you back the other color

Baby's food should always be administered at regular hours to avoid indigestion

Spray the children's throats occasionally with a very weak solution of carbolic acid and water.

A little application of the old-fashioned maxim about the wisdom of going to bed early might do a great deal to solve the problem of the city child's nervousness

When baby pulls at his ears or cry sharply and presses his head against his mother, let her beware of earache, a common but dangerous complaint in very young children.—Philadelphia Record

A European scientist declares that sour milk

Contains a little germ that makes it give

The secret of eternal youth which sages long have sought,

And to drink is all we have to do to live

This may not be infallible, but here's a fact that is:

To make life glad and good from hour to hour

Do unto one another in a way to keep the milk

Of human kindness from becoming sour.

—Effie James in Judge.

A little dish of broken ice

Lay basking in the sun,

Its owner had forgotten it

Before her work was done;

But when she went to get the ice

And bring it in to tea,

She found the ice was not what it

Had been cracked up to be.

—Puck.

Two hearts that beat as one may reconcile

The thought that pleasure's cup still overbrims:

For generally one beats to ragtime, while

The other heart seems but attuned to hymns.

The trolley car conductor was in a philosophical mood. "We should all profit by our mistakes," he said; "especially when we make mistakes in giving change."

Wigg—"Bluffem poses as a hustler, doesn't he?" Wagg—"Well, yes; he's always energetic in reaching a conclusion that something ought to be done."

Life always has some horrid clog

To trip a fellow up;

It's hard to be a gay, gay dog

On the income of a pup.

The difference between marrying for love and marrying for money is simply the difference between Cupid and cupidity.

Sixteen families were burned out of a New York tenement house.

SOMERSET.

Chief Dispatcher Embry is in Wisconsin. Ben Waddle was in Cincinnati Saturday.

The young people enjoyed a dance Thursday night, about 15 couples being present.

If you want to see a good play don't fail to see "Everyman" at the Gem on Wednesday evening

While improvements are going on, how about cleaning up the debris in front of the postoffice?

Ben Waddle has been appointed from the High School by Gov. Beckham to attend the inaugural address at Washington March 4.

The Somerset Pastime Club elected the following officers Tuesday: Ed Morrow, president; R. H. Bartells, vice president; T. G. Trimble, secretary; J. M. Richardson, treasurer

Oscar Moore, the popular salesman for John P. Morton & Co., was here Saturday and Sunday. Oscar always makes it a point to hit here on Sunday, so as to see his friends and "friend."

The South Somerset Sun, a weekly newspaper published by Boone & Bates, made its appearance Saturday. This makes five newspapers for Somerset. The saying that "there is always room for one more" won't go this time. May the Sun shine brightly

Orders have been received by Superintendent Maguire from General Manager Garret, of the Southern, to have 500 laborers with proper foremen ready for work March 1st, on the proposed Somerset shops. This is good news for our city and the people should prepare for the thousands that this will bring. The first thing is a street car line from North to the South end. This will have to be done to get the South end trade. Great is the future of the 'Queen City of the Mountains."

MATRIMONIAL.

Nathan Harlow was arrested at Lexington on the charge of bigamy. He is said to have three wives

Robert R. Cravens, of Russell county, and Miss Sara Wilkinson, daughter of Drew Wilkinson, of Casey, were married last week

Although Friday evening was cold and disagreeable, it did not deter Eden Gooch and Miss Mina Rowland, a young couple from Kingsville, Lincoln county, who drove to Danville and were married.—Advocate.

Miss Sadie Martin, the pretty daughter of Mr. Silas B. Martin, one of Rockcastle's best and most substantial men, was married last week to Jno. Moore, of White's Station, Madison county. Rev. McGarvey, of Richmond, officiated.

J. Harvey Dunn, one of the cleverest gentlemen in the State and a prominent merchant of Brodhead, was married at Knoxville to Miss Iva Edwards, a belle of that city. We extend hearty congratulations and best wishes to the popular groom and his beautiful bride.

Miss Nannie Carmical, the youngest daughter of Rev and Mrs. J. C. Carmical, and J. H. Harp were married at the home of the bride, Rev. Oder, of the Christian church, officiating.—Mt. Vernon Signal. The bride is a sister of Mrs Kitty Smith, who has a number of friends here.

W M Hysinger, a prosperous farmer and stock dealer of Rockcastle, and Miss Grace Roberts, a popular lady of Brodhead, were married at Charles Hahn's, in the East End yesterday. The I. J. joins the host of friends of the happy couple in wishing them all the good things that can come their way

TEATERSVILLE—Surely the woodchuck's predictions are correct. Quite a number in speaking of snow refer to it as "the beautiful." How about it now? Mrs. W. H. Sebastian, who has been sick for some time, improves slowly. Grip seems the order of the day as quite a number of families in this section are down with the dreaded malady. Rev A. J. Pike, of Brodhead, has been called as pastor of Freedom church for another year. R. A. Beazley, of Paint Lick, has bought a great deal of tobacco in this locality, paying satisfactory prices. Ten cents seems to be the ruling figure. Hurt & East have not been able to start their distillery on account of lack of water. M. F. Bolar has sold his farm to Charles Cotton at $45. We regret to give Mr. Bolar and family up and can conscientiously recommend them to the best people wherever they may go. Dr. Amon has sold his farm at $25 and has moved his family to Lancaster

Whooping cough is causing many deaths in parts of Warren county.

Rev. Fiddle D. D.—Come up next Sunday and hear me preach my farewell sermon.

Mr. Brown—I will, with pleasure.

It will pay you to keep Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in your home. It only costs a quarter. Sold by Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard.

E. C. WALTON

GEN. NELSON A. MILES, the retired head of the U. S. army, who was recently appointed Adjutant General of Massachusetts, causing Congress to question the right of a retired officer to draw other salary than that allowed by the government, finds that the charge that he put President Jefferson Davis in irons while he had him in custody at Fortress Monroe, and otherwise cruelly treated him, rises on all occasions like a veritable Nemesis to haunt him. In reply to the charge he says he was only acting under the orders of higher authorities and not for the purpose of humiliating the people of the South through their beloved leader. Rev J. William Jones, who was Stonewall Jackson's chaplain, and who is now Chaplain General of the United Confederate Veterans, denies the statement, however, and says that General Miles acted on his own responsibility, moved by spite and cruelty, and that Secretary of War Stanton reproved Miles, after ordering the Confederate Chieftan unfettered. Mr. Jones adds that on a visit to Mr. Davis' home at Beauvoir, Miss., not long before he died that gentleman severely arraigned Gen. Miles and said he had written an article for a Northern paper for "the purpose of handing down the miserable creature, Miles, to immortal infamy." The South feels as did Mr. Davis about the matter and that is why the snubbing of Miles by President Roosevelt and his attempt to get himself considered a presidential possibility met with no criticism or response from the people who, notwithstanding the errors of judgment that he might have made, love and venerate the memory of Jefferson Davis.

THE hanging of Mayor McCue, of Charlottsville, shows that in Virginia, at least, there is not one law for the rich man and another for the poor. Every effort that money and shrewd lawyers could invent was used to save him from the gallows, but without avail, and he went to death at sunrise Friday, confessing the guilt he had denied almost to his last breath. He killed his wife in a most horrible manner and for a time made the people believe it was done by a burglar, but murder came out as usual, and he was convicted on circumstantial evidence. Had he not confessed, many sentimentalists would have believed him innocent, but experience shows that juries nearly always err on the side of mercy and these cases are rare of wrong convictions. The execution of this man of money and influence is a triumph of the law and his confession is a vindication of the courts.

J. FRANK HANLY, republican governor of Indiana, is a tectotaler, never enters a saloon, does not use tobacco, is a pillar in the Methodist church and teaches in the Sunday school. But what will all this avail, if he perjure himself in failing to give up the men who conspired in the bloody tragedy which robbed Kentucky of a statesman and cut short the career of a man who always fought for the cause of the great common people? As a gentleman, as a christian and as the State's executive, he owes it to its good name to see that assassins are no longer harbored by law in Indiana.

IT is more than probable that the House will defeat the Senate Statehood bill, admitting Oklahoma and the Indian Territory as one State and New Mexico as another, leaving Arizona with 7 000 square miles of its present area cut off to Utah and that the Senate will retaliate by defeating the bill giving the United States Commerce Commission the power to fix railroad rates, which recently passed by a practically unanimous vote of both parties. This see-saw business is unworthy of such high deliberative bodies

IT is announced that Cortelyou is to be made Postmaster General. Cortelyou managed Roosevelt's campaign at his direction and it is said bled the truste rights and left, but as the man in the saddle called Candidate Parker a liar in seven different ways when he made the assertion, we hesitate to repeat it. All the same, Cortelyou gets his reward.

THE Chicago packers bought 45,500,000 eggs at 15 cents and cornered the market. Eggs are now in active demand in the Windy City at 36 cents a doz. and the soulless concern stands to clear $250,000 If the people would do without eggs and let the stock rot on their hands, it would serve them right.

RHYAN couldn't get into the White House except by calling on Roosevelt, and now some of his warmest supporters are saying things about him more profane and pointed than polite, because he mixed with the poor white trash, who "et with a Nigger."

THE president has just appointed a man deputy marshal because he has a record of having killed 20 men. If this is to be the recommendation, Breathitt county can keep up the supply of marshals for many years to come.

THE so-called affidavit of Moses Feltner, published in certain papers last Sunday with the hope of influencing the court of appeals against the Hargises, while intensely interesting, and if true, a burning and crying disgrace upon all concerned, reads too much like a carefully prepared statement by a shrewd lawyer who wants to win his case right or wrong, to carry that weight it might otherwise carry. The only evidence that Moses had anything to do with the document is that once or twice "I taken" appears for "I took." The Hargises may be, and doubtless are guilty of many crimes and other sins, but the character of the witnesses against them is not calculated to impress the public with the truth of their statements. Feltner confesses himself a murderer and as a conspirator of assassination, and like the discredited Capt. Ewen, his "affidavit" prepared by men who are bent on "destroying" the Hargises, 'twill be taken with a very large grain of salt.

THE course of Editor R. W. Knott, of the Louisville Post, has not been such as to commend him to democrats especially, but all fair-minded men will wish him safe deliverance from the criminal libel suit, induced by an alleged disreputable saloonist. The good people of the Falls City should support Mr Knott in his fight for moral improvement.

POLITICAL.

The House of the Idaho Legislature has passed a Senate bill providing for fines and imprisonment for polygamy and adultery.

There is reported to be a serious breach between the administration and the Senate over the latter's seeming purpose to amend and perhaps kill the arbitration treaties.

Senator McCreary's bill for the relief of Madison county and giving the court of claims the right to adjudicate the claim, was passed by the Senate.

The impression exists in Washington that the president has lessened his influence by attempting to dictate to the Senate and by further exposing his desire for a "one man" power.

The Senate this week will be occupied with the Swayne impeachment trial and at intervening times the appropiation bills. The House will take up the Naval Appropriation bill, which will be debated at length.

The members of the Cabinet have all tendered their resignations, and on the 6th of March they will all be nominated for re-appointment, with the exception of Mr. Wynne, who is to be appointed Consul General at London Mr. Cortelyou will be nominated March 6 for Postmaster General.

Representative Louis Legler, of Evansville, Ind., is in grave danger from the vengeance of some "gentlemen of color," for his life has been threatened, says an Indianapolis dispatch. Mr Legler is the author of the bill to establish crematories in certain cities, and some of the colored people have constructed the measure to mean that it will legalize the burning of Negroes, possibly at the stake. They are aroused over it and say they will have none of it.

Gov. Beckham has appointed the following gentlemen members of the State Board of Equalization for the ensuing year: First district, H. F. Oliver, Fulton; Second district, Ab G. Rhea, Russellville: Third district, F. J. Campbell, Somerset; Fourth district, Dr. J. P Steadman, Louisville; Fifth district, M. J. Meagher, Frankfort; Sixth district, R. T. Hart, Flemingsburg; Seventh district, Henry Cox, West Liberty. They meet Feb. 28, being the date of the annual assessments.

Within the past few days Kentucky republicans who are opposed to the appointment of J. Sherman Cooper as collector, have kept the wires and mails to the White House hot with protests, says a Washington dispatch. Among the strongest are from Pulaski and the 11th district republicans. It is charged that Cooper did not turn over his hand for the National republican ticket, while it is pointed out that Judge Denton was not only a delegate to the Chicago convention, but worked in and out of season for Roosevelt.

The Senate by an overwhelming majority amended the arbitration treaties by inserting the word "treaty" in place of "agreement" in the original draft and ratified them as amended. This was done over the protest of the president in a letter written by him to Senator Cullom, which was read to the Senate. The president in his letter, declared that the amendment proposed would be a "step backward." There was considerable criticism by the Senators of the president's attitude, as bordering on an attempt at usurpation.

PROTECT YOURSELF AGAINST GERMS.

People With Weak Stomachs Most Liable to Catch Disease.

When the stomach and digestive organs are weak, the food does not digest, and there is a sour, slimy, fermenting mass, making it an ideal spot for the disease germs to multiply. The only way to protect yourself against disease germs is to strengthen the stomach and digestive organs, and Mi-o-na is the only agent, so far as is known, that will accomplish this.

The ordinary medicine that is taken for indigestion and stomach troubles is advertised to act upon the food alone, and hence can give no more than temporary relief. Mi-o-na is a certain cure in all cases of stomach troubles, except cancer, because it enables the stomach and digestive organs to act in the way Nature intended they should. Drugs cannot digest the food; they simply decompose it.

If you suffer with distress after eating, pains in the head, chest, sides and back, belching of gases and undigested food, bad taste in the mouth, dizziness or vertigo, heart-burn, variable appetite, sick headaches, spots before the eyes, and have a general feeling of despondency, weakness, and debility, you should at once strengthen the stomach and digestive system by the use of Mi-o-na. There is no liquid, no alcohol, no spoonful doses with Mi-o-na. Just one simple tablet out of a 50-cent box before eating, and your stomach will soon become so strong and healthy that you will be germ proof. Ask Penny to show you the guarantee under which he sells Mi-o-na; costs nothing unless it cures.

Her Address.

"Miss Pretty Girl, of Prettyville,"
The simple superscription said;
Quite plain, and yet, with all his skill
Postmaster Cupid shook his head.

He searched the maps of all the States,
The numbers, streets of every town,
Domestic, foreign postage rates,
And got his great red census down.

"Alas, alas, to no avail!"
He cried, "I'll simply underline,
And shuffling it with all the mail,
Commend it to St. Valentine.

Released, the little fellow flew,
St. Val. divined with half an eye,
That Pretty Girl meant simply "Lou,"
And Prettyville, of course, "Ky."

TEMPER PRESERVING HAIR BRUSHES.

A hair brush is a long-lived article. Things that last should be bought right. A hair brush is one of the little things that adds to or detracts from daily comfort. A poor one won't penetrate the hair and is a perpetual nuisance.

You can't get a poor one here, no matter how little you pay, and for 50 cents and upwards you can get the kinds that last a score of years and are a satisfaction while they last.

Nothing Too Complicated

We pay Especial Attention to

Your watch or clock running without oil, is like any other kind of machinery—will wear itself out by friction of one part upon another when the oil becomes dry. It's poor economy to neglect to have this done. All repairing promptly attended to. Call for your work—it's ready!

For further particulars see or address L. R. Hughes, Stanford, Ky.

THE weather continues an interesting topic because of the fearfulness of it. Sunday was a warm day and rain fell for several hours. A heavy snow fell that night and yesterday was an intensely cold day. Last night was the coldest of the winter and the mercury this morning showed four degrees below zero. The sun is shining brightly to-day and it looks like we may have warmer weather soon. It can't come to quickly.

Do You Remember?

Do you remember, little wife,
How years ago we two together
Saw naught but love illuminate life
In sunny days or wintry weather?

Do you remember how we two
Would stare into each other's eyes,
Till all the earth grew heavenly blue
And speech was lost in happy sighs?

Do you another thing recall,
That used to happen often then:
How, simply passing in the hall,
We'd stop to smile and kiss again?

Do you remember how I sat
And, reading, held your hand in mine,
Caressing it with gentle pat—
One pat for every blessed line?

Do you recall while at the play
Through hours of agony we tarried?
The lovers' griefs brought us dismay;
Oh, we rejoiced when they were married!

Ah, me, 'twas year and years ago
When all this happened that I sing,
And many a time the winter snow
Has slipped from olive slopes of spring.

And now—oh nonsense: let us tell:
A fig for laugh of maids or men:
You'll hide your blushes? I'll not. Well—
We're ten times worse than we were then.

Altruism.

Alfred H. Love, of Philadelphia, President of the Universal Peace Union, was talking on the topic, peculiarly congenial to him, of kindness. Said he:

"I once knew a remarkably kind boy. He was a great angler. There was a trout stream in his neighborhood that flowed through a rich man's estate. Permits to fish the stream could now and then be obtained, and the boy was lucky enough to have a permit.

"One day he was fishing with another boy when a gamekeeper suddenly darted forth from a thicket. The lad with the permit uttered a cry of fright dropped his rod and ran off at top speed. The gamekeeper pursued.

"For about a half-mile the gamekeeper was led a swift and difficult chase. Then, worn out, the boy halted. The man seized him by the arm and said between pants:

"'Have you a permit to fish on this estate?'

"'Yes, to be sure,' said the boy, quietly.

"'You have? Then show it to me.'

"The boy drew his permit from his pocket. The man examined it and frowned in perplexity and anger.

"'Why did you run when you had this permit?' he asked.

"'To let the other boy get away,' was the reply. 'He didn't have none.'"—Harper's Weekly.

Sick Headache.

This distressing ailment results from a disordered condition of the stomach. All that is needed to effect a cure is a dose or two of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. In fact, the attack may be warded off, or greatly lessened in severity, by taking a dose of these Tablets as soon as the first symptoms of an attack appears. Sold by Lyne Bros, Crab Orchard.

Why does a duck go into the water? For divers reasons.

CURES WITHOUT STOMACH DOSING.

Hyomei Cures Catarah by Simple Breathing. Penny Refunds Money if It Fails To Cure.

A long stride towards solving the mystery of curing catarrh was taken with the discovery of Hyomei. In fact, the percentage of cures by this treatment proves it equal to the final test.

The folly of taking medicine into the stomach to cure catarrh of the nose, the throat and the lungs, has been realized by physicians, but not until Hyomei was known had they a practical method that would obviate stomach drugging.

A complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1, and consists of a neat pocket inhaler that can be used anywhere without attracting attention, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. Extra bottles of Hyomei cost but 50c.

Breathing Hyomei through the inhaler every particle of air that enters the nose, throat and lungs is charged with a healing balsam that soothes and allays all irritation, kills the catarrhal germs and enriches the blood with additional ozone.

Penny has so much faith in the power of Hyomei to cure catarrh that he is selling it under his personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not give positive relief.

At the end of January Mrs. Wunder brought her nice new expense book to her husband.

"I can figure up my January balance all right," said she, "but I'm either $19 05 behind or ahead. I remember what all the other items are for, but I can't recall whether I spent that $19.05 for something or you gave it to me for household expenses."

Mr. Wunder looked at the page for a moment, then handed back the book with a condescending air.

"My dear," he said, "that 1905 seems to me to indicate what year this is."—Judge.

No. 78. 150,000 acres of cotton land in Mississippi. There is no section of country which offers so many opportunities for profitable investment as the Mississippi Delta which is now fitly described as "Prosperity Valley." The timber is becoming more valuable all the time for the reason that lumber people from the North (where the supply of timber is fast diminishing) are constantly increasing their purchases of timber lands in the South. When the timber is removed the land is unequaled for agricultural purposes. It will produce a bale of cotton to the acre or will grow any other kind of crop raised in the temperate zone. The soil needs no fertilizers and gives a yield which cannot be excelled; taxes are low, the title is perfect and the man who buys Delta farm and timber lands at present prices is making an investment that he will never regret. This land is divided into tracts ranging from 40 acres to the tract to 10,000 acres to the tract and prices from $8 per acre to $16 per acre, according to location, etc. We are authorized by the company who owns these lands to state that as other parties are considering the purchase of these lands that we offer these tracts subject to prior sale, withdrawal from market or change in price without notice. However, when notified, they will hold any tract out of market long enough for the purchaser to make an investigation. About 15,000 acres of this land has been sold by the Company since we received this option. For further particulars call at our office.
